

ALABAMA ASCD

Emerging Leader Award – 2023

Purpose of Award: Recognition for emerging leadership in the field demonstrating effectiveness, drive, vision, and passion for the profession shown in the first fifteen years of service in education.

Qualifications:

- A nominee shall have exhibited outstanding leadership in a school district or other educational agency in Alabama, may have up to 15 years of experience in education, and may be a teacher, administrator, or other certificated educator.
- A nominee must be nominated by an individual or group, including teachers, administrators, or school board members. Self-nominations will be considered.
- The nomination may originate within the school district or educational agency where the nominee currently serves, or the nomination may come from outside the district or agency.

Selection Criteria: The educator who merits recognition by the AASCD as an emerging leader may be expected to discuss or provide evidence of some of the following:

- An autobiographical record of service and leadership highlighting notable accomplishments in the field at the local, regional, state and/or national levels.
- Two letters of recognition by persons familiar with the individual's contributions to the field.

Selection Procedures: A selection committee will be appointed by the organization president. The selection will be limited to recognition of no more than two individuals meeting above stated criteria in one year. The award shall be presented at the AASCD Winter Conference or Summer CLAS Conference. Recognition in the form of a plaque will be presented to the recipient. The recipient of the AASCD Emerging Leader Award will receive complimentary registration to the AASCD Winter Conference for the award year.

Selection Timeline:

- Recommendations and all nomination materials should be sent to the Awards Committee Chair and must be received by postal mail or e-mail by January 11, 2023.
- Selection and notification of the final candidate(s) will be made by the Selection Committee by January 16, 2023.
- The Award will be presented to the recipient at the AASCD Winter Conference, January 23-24, 2023, in Orange Beach, Alabama.
